

Customer Relationship Summary Introduction

Horizons Wealth Management is an investment adviser with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you to understand the differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

Relationships and Services

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer investment advisory services to retail investors, including the below:

- We will offer you investment advice on a regular basis for an assets under management fee. We will discuss your investment goals, design with you a strategy to achieve your investment goals, and regularly monitor your account. We will contact you (by phone or e-mail) when we deem it necessary to discuss your investment portfolio.
- Your account will allow us to buy and sell investments in your account without asking you in advance (a “discretionary account”).
- We are held to a fiduciary standard that covers our entire investment advisory relationship with you. We are bound to make decisions that we believe are in our clients best interest.

For additional information, please see our Form ADV, Part 2A brochure, specifically Items 4 and 7.

Conversation Starters: Ask us the following questions –

- ✓ Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- ✓ How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- ✓ What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct

What fees will I pay?

- If you open an advisory account, you will pay an on-going asset-based fee billed at the end of each quarter for our services, based on the value of the cash and investments in your advisory account.
- The more assets you have in the advisory account, including cash, the higher your fee may be. We therefore have an incentive to increase the assets in your account in order to increase our fees. You pay our fee quarterly even if we do not buy or sell investments.
- You may pay a transaction fee when we buy and sell an investment for you. These fees do not go to HWM. You may also pay fees to a broker-dealer or bank that will hold your assets (called “custody”). Other fees you will pay include, but are not limited to, annual account maintenance services.
- Some investments (such as mutual funds and variable annuities) impose additional fees that may reduce the value of your investment over time. Also, with certain investments such as variable annuities, you may have to pay fees such as “surrender charges” to sell the investment.
- You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs may reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. For more information, please see Form ADV, Part 2A brochure, Item 5.

Conversation Starters: Ask us the following questions –

- ✓ Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $1m to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser?
How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

- When we act as your investment adviser, we must act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.
- We can make additional money by advising you to rollover your retirement account from your current employer's plan regardless of whether our investments result in better returns over time. Your financial professional receives compensation from these additional managed assets.

For additional information, please see our Form ADV, Part 2A brochure, specifically Items 4 and 7.

Conversation Starters: Ask us the following questions –

- ✓ How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

How do your financial professionals make money?

- Our financial professionals may be compensated in one or more of the following ways: the amount of client assets that we service, the time and complexity required to meet client's needs, the revenue the firm earns from our advisory services or recommendations.
- Our interests can conflict with your interests. We must tell you about them in a way you can understand, so that you can decide whether or not you agree to them.

Disciplinary History

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

- No, the firm and/or its financial professionals do not have a reported disclosure.
- Visit Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research your financial professionals.

Conversation Starters: Ask us the following questions –

- ✓ As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?
